

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
August 16, 2013

Media Contact:

Megan Morris

Dir. of Development and Community Relations

Morgan Memorial Hospital

meganm@mmh.org

706-752-2237

Morgan Memorial Hospital Announces New Chief Financial Officer

Madison, GA – Morgan Memorial Hospital is pleased to announce the hiring of Kyle H. Wilkinson, CPA as the organization’s Chief Financial Officer (CFO). In this role, he will oversee the hospital’s financial, accounting and budgetary functions.

Wilkinson comes to Madison having spent the last five years with Morgan Memorial’s auditing firm, Draffin and Tucker, LLP as a Senior Accountant specializing in Audit and Assurance Services. He also has three years of experience as a Staff Accountant with Rodney Prince, CPA.

“Kyle will bring to Morgan Memorial many talents,” said Paul Courchaine, Treasurer of Morgan County Hospital Authority. “His experience providing audit services for various healthcare entities will be an asset for us. His knowledge of preparing cost reports and completing annual hospital financial surveys is an invaluable resource.”

A native of Bainbridge, GA, Wilkinson will also bring an understanding of small-town values to the table along with his healthcare finance expertise.

“High-quality local healthcare is a key factor in the success of rural communities,” said Ralph Castillo, MMH CEO. “Kyle’s financial knowledge, combined with his strong desire to be an active partner in our local community, will be a key asset to our hospital leadership team.”

Wilkinson holds an M.B.A. from Georgia Southern University as well as a B.B.A. in Banking and Finance from the University of Georgia and a B.B.A. in Accounting from Georgia Southwestern University. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants, and both the Georgia and South Carolina Chapters of the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

###